Support Provided in the Wake of the No.5 Alarm Fire in Tai Po

Following the No.5 alarm fire at Wang Fuk Court in Tai Po on 26 November, with continuous coverage on television and online platforms, children may feel uneasy or worried. To help parents recognise and support their children's emotional needs early, we would like to remind all parents to pay close attention to your children's behaviour during this period. Please take time to listen to them, encourage them to express their feelings, and offer appropriate reassurance. Parents are also advised to refrain from repeatedly showing related footage or discussing detailed descriptions of the incident.

If students continue to show signs of emotional distress, excessive anxiety, or any discomfort, please contact our school social worker, Ms. Sung, our Guidance and Counselling Master, Mr. Chau, or our Deputy Headmistress, Ms. Tang. The school will provide appropriate care and support. If needed, parents may also contact the following counselling services:
